

JOB DESCRIPTION

Malting Assistant

Location: Glen Mills, PA

Salary: Negotiable (full time or part time availability)

Bonus/Incentive Eligibility: Yes

Shift: Flexible. Ideally, early first (6am-3pm) or late second (2pm-11pm), Monday – Friday (40hrs) for full time employment. Coverage for critical routine process time points (6am, 2pm, 10pm) during week days and sometimes on weekends required for part time (hourly) work.

Description: Daily responsibilities include cleaning and moving grain, operating malting and farm equipment, steeping, germinating, packaging, kilning, and testing finished malt ingredients. Production and packaging of consumer packaged goods, including malt food and beverages.

Education (preferred): N/A

Required: 21 or older. Candidate must be hardworking, self-motivated, detail oriented, and able to follow management instructions and operations procedures accurately. Candidate must also be proficient with basic MS and iOS systems for data entry and reporting. Quality, consistency, and care are required for day-to-day malting operations; however, creativity and innovation are important for the malting assistant role with regard to process improvement and product development ideation. Candidate requires physical capabilities to turn grain with a shovel or rake, and move bags of malt by hand regularly up to 55lbs.

Desired: The ideal candidate has experience farming, brewing, distilling or working in a commercial kitchen. General operations, manufacturing, or processing experience in the agricultural, biotechnology, or the food/beverage sectors desired. Prior experience in regulated food/beverage manufacturing environments using cGMPs preferred. Laboratory proficiency and previous work/study experience with wet chemistry, ecological, or plant cell bioassays also desired.

About Us: Deer Creek Malthouse was founded in 2012 as the first commercial malting operation in Pennsylvania since prohibition. We produce high quality, flavorful ingredients using locally grown grain for use in beer, spirits, and food. The company also produces some food and beverages of its own that are sold via eCommerce and area farmers markets. Deer Creek is an equal opportunity employer. Anyone is encouraged to apply for a position on our team.